

Bill Rhoten - Director

Bill Rhoten was born in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida and raised in Corpus Christi, Texas. He has more than 40 years of diversified acting, directing, producing and writing experience, in over 100 stage productions in Ennis and the Dallas area. He founded Dallas Theatre on Tour, the Prairie House Dinner Theatre, Ennis Public Theatre and five years ago, Theatre Rocks! Some career highlights include: directing Pulitzer Prize and Tony winner Tracy Letts in his early career in Dallas in four productions; Bill performed in and directed William Mastrosimone's The Woolgatherer for which he received the coveted "Critics Choice" award by the Dallas Times Herald; he directed Electric Angel by Brad Bailey which had it's world premiere in Dallas and was later produced in Los Angeles; and The Real Queen of Hearts Ain't Even Pretty by Brad Bailey was produced twice by Bill who later co-produced and directed the feature length film.

His writing credits include two screenplays, a TV pilot, Jessie's Diary, a short film now available on Amazon.com, and his film entitled New Hope (writer/director) which was selected with 30 other shorts in it's category (of 1,800 submitted) for competition at the Palm Springs International Film Festival. "New Hope was the wisest, the smartest, and truthfully the most passionate of all the films we submitted....." (The Desert Sun, Palm Springs, California.)

He has authored five stage plays: My Favorite Christmas, Where's Santa and two award winning plays, both of which premiered on this stage: Mojave, and last season's Hyer House. His newest play, My First Date, will have it's world premiere in February of 2019.
